 New Year, New Look, New Insights

ORMC's Public-Facing Website Revamped!

Our public website now has a new look!

Through the insights gathered in our Brand Evaluation Exercise, our website has been redesigned to better communicate ORMC's identity and the work we do.

This is one of our key rebranding efforts to transform the way we engage our stakeholders within and beyond the NUS community.

Check out ORMC's new website to learn more about us!

We are also excited to share that the revamp of the ORMC's Intranet site is currently in progress. NUS staff and students can expect a brand-new look with refreshed contents. Stay tuned – more will be unveiled soon.

What is the latest Risk Landscape?

Get insights from our World Economic Forum (WEF) Summary Report 2024

The WEF Global Risks Report is released annually, offering a detailed examination of the world's most crucial risks today.

In its 19th edition from 2024, this report reveals the outcomes of the Global Risks Perception Survey (GRPS), gathering perspectives from around 1,500 global experts.

Come read a summary of the report we've prepared, highlighting critical risks and their impacts.
